Customer agrees to pay Neofilm Productions (herein referred to as NP) the "Total cost of the event" amount above for services delivered as described in an attached "Details Form" or as described above. NP and anyone working with or for NP are not liable for any damages, loss, and/or legal action that may result from services delivered or reproductions of the final cut or any part of footage recorded regardless of the situation. Customer is responsible for informing the public that they may be included in the recording. Customer is responsible for obtaining releases, permits, agreements, etc... from any and all copyright holder(s) pictures, music, logos, etc... and all individuals (e.g. talent, background actors, etc...) included in this project. Customer warrants and represents that they have, or shall obtain, sufficient personal injury and property damage liability insurance for the event and activities NP is being hired for and the place of the occasion. A deposit is required and nonrefundable unless NP initiates a cancellation. At the time of the event the remainder of the balance due is expected. Customer understands that under no circumstance is a refund an option after the event has been videographed. Customer is responsible for maintaining a copy of the final project. NP is not responsible for archiving or backing up the project. Customer shall provide each member of NP with reasonable amounts of free water/beverages during the occasion, tickets to the occasion, and free meals on the date(s) of the occasion. Customer is responsible for reimbursing NP, outside of deposit, for any cost incurred due to cancellation by customer for any reason. This project belongs to the customer and customer authorizes NP to fix the sounds or images or sounds and images of the event in a copy or phonorecord, or reproduce copies or phonorecords of event. Customer gives NP exclusive permission to transmit or otherwise communicate to the public the sounds or images, or sounds and images of the event. Customer gives NP exclusive permission to distribute or offer to distribute, sell or offer to sell, rent or offer to rent, or traffic in any copy or phonorecord fixed, regardless of whether the fixations occurred in the United States. NP does not guarantee playback of the works created by NP on any particular devices. Customer's signature affirms complete understanding and acceptance of all of the above terms. By signing below you declare that you represent the entire band, party, business and/or anyone else being filmed. This agreement is made final when both parties have signed below:
